

Grace Centennial

Chapel Dedication

Does anyone remember the Chapel of Memory at the Vista Bonita Church? Have you noticed the stone Celtic Cross in our current chapel courtyard? It has a proud Grace history, also!

DEDICATION ATTENDED BY 100 CLERGYMEN

Glendora, Oct. 5—Built by Rev. Henry Scott Rubel and members of his parish, the outdoor Chapel of Memory of Grace Episcopal Church, Glendora, was dedicated today by Dr. R.B. Gooden, Suffragan Bishop of the Los Angeles Diocese. More than 100 clergymen attended.

A feature of the chapel is a large Monasterboice cross of Gaelic design, constructed by Fritz Leiber, the Shakespearean actor, in memory of his mother, the late Mrs. Meta Kelt Leiber. Assisting at the services were Dr. Harry Beal, Rev. E.T. Lewis, Rev. William Cowans and Mr. Rubel.

The picture on the right came from a clipping of the Los Angeles Times, October, 1936

Outdoor Altar
in the Chapel of Memory
Executed by Ernest Harrington,
John Thum, George Bruce, Richard
Spalding, and others,
To the Glory of God and in loving memory of HENRY QUIMBY, Priest
and Rector of Monrovia who drove by horse and buggy each Sunday to Glendora and helped found Grace Church.

that 600 new families have moved here since May, representing an increase of nearly 2000 persons.

Dedication Attended by 100 Clergymen

GLENDORA, Oct. 5.—Built by Rev. Henry Scott Rubel and members of his parish, the outdoor Chapel of Memory of Grace Episcopal Church, Glendora, was dedicated today by Dr. R. B. Gooden, Suffragan Bishop of the Los Angeles Diocese. More than 100 clergymen attended.

A feature of the chapel is a large Monasterboice cross of Gaelic design, constructed by Fritz Leiber, the Shakespearean actor, in memory of his mother, the late Mrs. Meta Kelt Leiber.

Assisting at the services were Dr. Harry Beal, Rev. E. T. Lewis, Rev. William Cowans and Mr. Rubel.

Mystery Bullet Perils Man in Yard

MONROVIA, Oct. 5.—As he worked in his back yard at 334 Linwood avenue, George H. Dodson felt a bullet whiz past him early yesterday evening. He heard it strike the garage behind him. Police were called to investigate and they found a spent .32-caliber cartridge imbedded in the wall.

GLENDORA CHAPEL BLESSED

Fritz Leiber, left, the Shakespearean actor, is shown with Dr. R. B. Gooden, center, diocese Bishop, and Rev. Henry Scott Rubel, at the dedication yesterday of the Chapel of Memory, Grace Episcopal Church, Glendora. The cross was constructed by the famed actor.

Picture caption:

Fritz Leiber, left, the Shakespearean actor, is shown with Dr. R.B. Gooden, center, diocese Bishop, and the Rev. Henry Scott Rubel, at the dedication yesterday of the Chapel of Memory, Grace Episcopal Church, Glendora. The cross was constructed by the famed actor.